Welcome to Mt. Calvary

Pastor's Comments

Expect a miracle. I saw a sign in front of a church the other day that made this statement. Honestly, I was having a horrible day and that seemed to give me a sense of hope. Have you ever thought that God sends us miracles? I just know that sometimes there is no way that I can make it, but God always intervenes. In biblical days miracles were pretty prevalent. People healed, people raised from the dead, and those things have long been done away with. However, do you realize we still see miracles today? No. This preacher hasn't lost his mind. We see miracles every single time someone gets saved by the grace of God. It is a miracle that someone can be touched by the master above! Every time that I come into the Lord's house, I expect a miracle. I expect God to show himself true to us. Do you expect a miracle? I do. Pray for me this morning, please. We need a miracle!

God is so good.

BIBLE TRIVIA:

Last Week's Question: What book says there is a time to weep and a time to laugh? Ecclesiastes (3:4)

This Week's Question: Who, in the beatitudes, does Jesus promise laughter to?

Sometimes the Lord calms the storm;
sometimes He lets the storm rage and calms His child.

And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.

Philippians 4:7

Yesterday was our designated work day for cleaning the church, and hopefully for those of you who weren't here, you can see the results of our labor. We all worked hard and were diligent in getting the Lord's house in the best possible shape. There were several that showed up to help and our thanks go out to all of you who assisted. We especially want to thank Joe and Kathy Harrison who just came right in, made themselves at home and worked like turks to help us do the job. God will surely bless each of you for your dedication to His house.

MOVING TO NASHVILLE

Our Pastor has decided it is time for him to relocate to Nashville. He has placed his name on a list at an apartment complex located close to the church. Please pray for him as this is going to be a big adjustment for him. Leaving home and leaving his hometown is going to be a challenge, but we know who really takes care of him. Pray for his family as they are not quite ready to let him go.
