Welcome to Mt. Calvary

For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them. Matthew 18:20 Scripture admonishes us to pray and we know that Daniel prayed 3 times a day. Perhaps this is a good example to follow; however, we should have a prayer on our hearts continuously. There is a lot to be said in support of prayer as it is our direct line to the Heavenly Father. The story is told of a young man who left home to attend college and upon his departure, his mother asked him to promise her that he would be in church every Sunday. She told him that she would be praying for him every Sunday at 11:00. It wasn't long after starting college that the young man decided to skip church and "have fun" with his friends and fellow students. However, when the church bells began to chime at the 11:00 hour, it immediately struck his heart that his dear mother was praying for him at that exact moment. Needless to say, he left his friends and proceeded to the church. Prayer changes things and we can always know that God listens to everything we say. If you are visiting with us today, we want you to make yourself at home and join us in worshipping our Lord and Savior

BIBLE TRIVIA:

Last Week's Question: Whose entrancing dance proved fatal for John the Baptist? The daughter of Herodias (Matthew 14:6-8)

This Week's Question: Who held a feast with dancing when his son returned?

A day hemmed in prayer is less likely to unravel.

Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God. And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.

Philippians 4:6-7

Don't forget to make your New Year's Resolutions and hopefully one of them will be to serve the Lord more this year than ever before. We pray that each of you and your loved ones and friends enjoyed a wonderful Christmas. Now the New Year is upon us and we wish for all of you a

The Midnight Hour

I stood by my window as midnight drew nigh, And looked at the heaven of black in the sky. My thoughts seemed to hang there as stars overhead, And I thought about family and loved ones now dead, And their faces rolled by like a white show of film But the one that was dearest was that one of Him.

Oh I've never seen Him, don't know how He'd look, But I know all about Him, cause I've read His life's book. And I met Him one winter when I was a girl, And during that meeting, He changed my whole world. He came soft and gentle, a tug now and then; Never gave up on me 'til I yielded to Him.

So now in this hour between old and new, I just want to thank Him for seeing me through And when life is finished and my work is o'er He'll take me to live on that evergreen shore. Sometimes I just long for that heavenly place To be home with the Father and look on His face. And some day I'll be there with loved ones gone on As He leads me safely to my brand new home.
