Welcome to Mt. Calvary

Pastor's Comments

Another year has come and gone. This new one is three days old. It seems like time progressively speeds up no matter how bad you wish that it wouldn't. Some people have made new resolutions or just simply decided that whatever they failed at last year they will do better at this year. Sounds good to me. However, most people have forgotten what they decided to do before they wake up on New Year's Day. Whatever you want to accomplish in 2016, do it. Just make sure that God is in it and it will succeed.

I'm looking forward to this new year with each of you as we continue on as a church. I believe some very exciting things are ahead. Let's keep pushing on, praying, believing and expecting for lost souls to get saved!

May God Bless each of us in 2016!

Sis Caitlyn Kemp is in Ohio visiting with her family so she will be out a couple of Sundays. She should be returning around the 16th of January.

BIBLE TRIVIA:

Last Week's Question: Who held a feast with dancing when his son returned? The father of the prodigal son (Luke 15:25)

This Week's Question: Who laughed at Nehemiah's plans to rebuild Jerusalem?

Service is the rent we pay for the space we occupy.

Serve the LORD with fear, and rejoice with trembling.

Psalm 2:11

Too often, we interpret scripture to fit what we already believe rather than adjust what we believe to scripture.

God's Treasures

Look up and catch the morning sun -

It's just now peeking through;

Look up before the clouds turn gray. . . a summer shower's due.

Look and see the silvery stars as God turns on their light;

Look up and see a yellow moon cast shades in the night

Look down into a child's eyes, so innocent and sweet,

And when you see a mother's smile, it makes your day complete.

When nighttime ends and day begins, what beauty we behold!

For all good things He promised us - God's treasures now unfold.

The weekly bulletin, although fun, is a lot of work. If that work were spread between more people, it would be easier on everyone, more enjoyable, a church-wide effort, and more informative. It is not Sis Stella's bulletin, it is the church's bulletin and your help would be greatly appreciated. If you have pictures to insert, send them to me, let me know of anything going on in our sister churches that you are aware of, run across a funny story - send it in. Have a burden on your heart - let us know; something interesting happened to you during the week, share it. Any and all information would be greatly appreciated.
