Welcome to Mt. Calvary

Pastor's Comments

What makes church so important? We live in a time when it seems as though church is more or less back marker to almost everything. "If we have nothing else to do, I guess we'll go to church." But why is it important? If you've been saved think back to the times you were taken to church or maybe went yourself. Can you imagine if you had shown up that day and you found a note on the door that said, "we're busy, might be back next Sunday." So often we take for granted the ability to GO to church. I'm thankful that somebody cared enough about me to keep the doors open, the lights burning, and most of all the pulpit filled with God called men to preach the word of God in the power and demonstration of the Holy Spirit. I've often thought about where I'd be had they given up or gone home with no concern for the Lost. So why is it important you may ask, if we aren't here our friends, family members and neighbors may not have the opportunity to be saved. Sure, they can get saved anywhere but the Gospel must be preached so that hearts can be pricked. Where else could be better than in the Lord's house? It's important that we take this matter up boldly and never to forget about assembling ourselves together.

Thank you for being here today, my prayer is that you will find your place in this service. If you have been saved by the grace of God, follow his leadership today. You'll not be disappointed.

Bro. Taylor

It takes courage to cross some bridges,
and wisdom to know which ones to burn.

BIBLE TRIVIA:

Last Week's Question: Who laughed when she heard she would bear a son in her old age? Answer: Sarah (Genesis 18:10-12)

This Week's Question: Who was snickered at for claiming that a dead girl was only asleep?

There is a vast difference between knowing about God and knowing Him.

Be still, and know that I am God:

MEMBER MOMENTS

We are thankful everyone made it through the snow storm okay. Bro. Tony Bewley did have an accident due to the snow and incurred a lot of damage to his vehicle. Thankfully, though, Bro. Tony is fine.

Faith Church is having their 5th Sunday Dinner today.
Everyone is invited to join them for lunch.

Visiting Preacher

Elder Frank Kirby will be preaching for us this evening. Everyone please try and come back at 6:00.

NO MATTER

No matter what the trial
That I may face today
No matter tribulation
That comes along my way
My precious Lord and Savior
Is holding to my hand
And He will gently lead me
According to His plan.
I may not know the reason
I may not understand
But with His tender guiding
I know that I shall stand
So I will never waiver
I'll firmly travel on
Until I reach sweet Heaven
And my eternal home
