Welcome to Mt. Calvary

Pastor's Comments

There is a song that the Primitive Quartet sings entitled "Thank you, for the Roses." The basis for the song is telling people "thank you." I believe in letting people know when they have helped, supported, encouraged, prayed, and blessed you for different things. I believe God places people in our lives for certain reasons. Sometimes we don't fully understand the magnitude they will have on our lives. That's okay. God knows everything. They may become friends, family and even sometimes could become spouses. From the depths of my heart I just want to give every one of you roses. Whether you believe it or not, you have touched my life in ways that I couldn't describe. I speak often of church being a "family" and I believe that to be the truth. We are a family. I'm thankful for every one of you, member or visitor (we really have no visitors here, you're all family when you step through the doors) alike. Maybe you'll even notice that we call each other "Brother and Sister" and that's precisely why.

I love you all, may we continue to grow together as a family of God.

THAT OVERLOOKS LIFE'S SEA.

Fear knocked at the door. Faith answered. No one was there.

As soon as Jesus heard the word that was spoken, he saith unto the ruler of the synagogue, Be not afraid, only believe.

Everyday Blessings

Every day there are blessing just waiting to be found
God works in mysterious ways to turn our lives around.
Even in our darkest hour, God hears and answers prayers,
And even when the answer's "NO!" we feel His presence
there.

It sometimes seems the simplest things can give us such a lift.

A kindness shown by those unknown is the nicest kind of grift.

A small bouquet can make our day picked by a loving child.

For life's unexpected blessings can leave the heart
beguiled

Blessings come in in many forms to help us through the day.
And we have much to thank Him for each time we stop to pray.

There are no limits to God's love if we just look around.
Everyday there are blessings just waiting to be found.
