Welcome to Mt. Calvary

Pastor's Comments

I guess Jerusalem must have been a busy place that day. I'm sure people were going around trying to get their affairs in order. Off to their jobs, markets, camel wash. However, as they ran through the city going about their day some of them must have been going by Pilates Hall. Must have heard the howling, angry mob that had gathered to say "Crucify Him!". It was probably just another day in Jerusalem. Except that it wasn't. It was this day every year they selected one prisoner to go free, everyone had to have known who was on the block. One, Barrabas, was a murderer and a thief. The other, was my Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. That didn't matter though, they wanted him gone! Away with him! He's the one to die! Yet he never spoke against the crowd. He never pled his defense. He just went before the cross of Calvary and took it as though it were his objective. It was. The plan was made perfect. Oh, thank you Lord for the cross and the work that was completed there. For my sins, your sins, their sins were laid upon an innocent man.

Brothers and Sisters, He Is Risen.

BIBLE TRIVIA:

Last Week's Question: What epistle tells Christians to turn their laughter to mourning? James (4:9)

This Week's Question: What old woman said, "God hath made me to laugh to that all who hear will laugh with me"?

He who provides for this life, but takes no care for eternity, is wise for a moment, but a fool forever.

For what is a man profited, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul? or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul?

Matthew 16:26

The Cross

Our minds begin to wander back when Eastertime draws near
To a precious place called Calvary that we all hold so dear.
For it was on that lonely hill that Jesus bled and died
A crown of thorns upon His head, blood flowing from his side.

We see Him there as He propels the cross along the road
We see Him as He stumbles underneath the heavy load
We see these things and what took place as from great distant lands

We hear the hammer as it strikes the nails into His hands.

Our minds can see His arms outstretched in love to everyone,
And hear the echoes of the cries, "Are you God's only Son"?
Our ears can't hear the words He spoke, nor feel the pain he bore
We cannot see but through mind's eye, the blood-stained robe He wore.

But this was not the ending for our God had made a way
For all mankind to be redeemed because of Easter day
If we believe and trust in Him, the Lord's most precious son
We'll fly away some glorious day when victory shall be won,
