Welcome to Mt. Calvary

Pastor's Comments

Examinations are not easy. I absolutely hate going to the doctor and hearing him say, "we want to take an examination of _____" or when you're in an educational setting they schedule an examination to see how much they have drilled in your head. We're graded on scales all of our lives. Next Sunday, as a congregation, we face a time of examination and reflection. No tests, no annoying doctors or lab results. It is our Lord's Supper service (see you Wednesday night for our study over this very topic) in which we will partake of the second of our church ordinances. It is a serious time of reflection over how we have lived in this last 6 months, and maybe even our entire saved lives. Some people don't take it because they feel unworthy, and the moment that we do feel worthy we probably shouldn't take it, but none of us are worthy to be seated at the table of this amazing occasion. However, let me challenge you. If you cannot take of this supper next Sunday for whatever reason, mark your calendars NOW! The first Sunday in December (4th, 2016) we will do this again. If you aren't a member here, but feel the Lord leading you to be, follow the Lord in becoming a member of the Lord's church. If other obligations stand in your way of being here, mark those calendars and please make every effort. This is a wonderful, sacred, and beautiful time that we can spend remembering our Lord and Savior and what he has done for us.

May God bless Mt. Calvary Church in her efforts and compliance to the scriptures.

Bro. Taylor Gregory

Thanks to our Mt. Calvary veterans who have served our country.

The past should be a springboard, not a hammock.

. . . but this one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind,
and reaching forth unto those things which are before.

Philippians 3:13

Give THANKS to the Lord
for He is good; His love endures forever.

-1 Chronicles 16:34

HE IS THERE

He is there when problems surround your life. . .

He is there, when your troubles bring worry and strife. . .

He is there, in the darkest hour of need. . .

He is there when all seems lost if only you'll heed. . .

He is there, just listen for His word, feel His touch. . .

He is there, just because He loves you so much.

He is there to calm all the fear and the care. . .

He is there, and you can know that He'll always be there . . .

He is there in your heart to comfort and uplift

He is there, now and always your greatest gift.

Have a Safe and Happy Memorial Day
