Welcome to Mt. Calvary

PASTOR'S COMMENTS

The last couple Sunday's I have preached some pretty hard messages toward the church. They aren't easy to preach, but they are necessary sometimes. I'm thankful that this church is a strong group of people that are able to withstand messages that try to steer our lives in ways that bring honor and glory to the Lord. Isn't that our main goal? To bring honor and glory to the one who gave everything so that we might have the opportunity to be saved? Just stop and think about where you might be if he had not taken the time to look down and save you. Who else would do that knowing what we were and would be? Brother Mike Oldham sang us a song last Sunday that said, "He looked beyond my fault and saw my need." I've thought about that a lot this week, and for a God to do that for us the least we can do is offer up ourselves in return. It's the very least. You might think it sounds like a whole lot. With respect to what God gave up, we are really giving up very little.

Thank you so much for coming to be with us today. We are thankful that you have chosen to be here, but most of all we pray that you have a testimony of salvation. If you have that, you know the same God we do. May God bless you!

Character is what you are in the dark.

Even a child is known by his doings, whether his work be pure, and whether it be right.

BIBLE TRIVIA:

Last Week's Question: Who used the first pseudonym in Israel?
Esther, whose real name was Hadassh (Esther 2:7)

This Week's Question: Who built the first city?

Some folks' minds are like concrete, thoroughly mixed up and permanently set.

Wednesday night dinner here at the church at 5:40. Diner's choice.
