PASTOR'S COMMENTS

I want to take this space today and wish each of you a Merry Christmas! Some of you here today will not be able to make it back next week for various reasons, so I want to express today how thankful I am to be able to spend this day with you. I hope this year has been good for you and you've accomplished everything you set out to. Maybe you did or maybe you didn't and that is okay. Remember it's just about to be a new year. I pray each and everyone of you has a wonderful week and that you get to spend lots of time with your family. Even if you get everything on your list that you wanted, my greatest prayer is that you have the greatest gift ever given to mankind. Jesus Christ. Next Sunday morning amidst all of the present unwrapping and breakfast fun...take a few moments and remember that the only reason we can celebrate is that beautiful little baby boy born in a manger. Just for you. Just for me.

Bro Taylor Gregory

The best way out is always through

. . . . God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but will with the temptation also make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it.
