PASTOR'S COMMENTS

There is a song recorded by several different artists, but probably the most well known version was recorded by Elvis Presley. We sing it today and the song is titled "Peace in the Valley." The lyrics go like this:

*Well I'm tired and so weary but I must go along
Til the Lord comes to call me away
Where the morning is bright and the Lamb is the light
And the night is fair as the day.*

*There will be peace in the valley for me some day
There'll be peace in the valley for me
There'll be no sadness, no sorrow, no trouble I see
There will be peace in the valley for me.*

As a child of God I can claim this peace and know that there will indeed be "peace in the valley" for me, but while here on earth I also know and realize that I must go through trials and tribulations. At a time of great loss, it's even more important that there is a peace, a peace that passes all understanding. The peace that only God can give: PEACE IN THE MIDST OF THE STORM. I pray that everyone here today has this peace and that when your trial, tribulation or loss comes, as it will, you too can say "I do indeed have peace in the midst of the storm." Please remember me and my family in your prayers.

Sis Stella Jenkins

The night is always darkest right before the dawn.

Thou hast turned for me my mourning into dancing: thou hast put off my sackcloth, and girded me with gladness;

Psalm 30:11

OUR LAST GOODBYES

*When death has come to claim us
And we've said our last goodbyes
We'll pass from earth to heav'n
And soar up through the skies.
Though our body stays behind us
To be placed beneath the sod
Our soul will take it's final flight
Back home to be with God.*
