PASTOR'S COMMENTS

HAPPY EASTER! He is Risen!

I have thought a lot about that wandering sheep. Remember the scripture? It says that he left the ninety and nine to go searching for one little lost sheep. One. It did not have to be a whole host of them, he left the fold to just go after one. You know when the Lord saved my soul he gave me something far more than I imagined. He gave me a peace, a joy, a happiness. He also gave me a love like I have never known. If you ask most anyone, they will tell you I cannot keep up with anything. I'll place things in a safe spot just to lose them. The same goes for all of us. We are kept by Christ until some age where we become accountable (it's truly not a universal thing, everyone reaches that age differently) for our sins. I did. You did. If you have not, you will. I was lost. Hopelessly, desperately lost out in the world of sin and I was so scared. Until he came looking for me. The Bible says that you cannot go to the Father, but by him (Jesus) of that is true; without him I couldn't be saved. Yet he went searching and He found me. In order for you to be found you have to go seeking. When he finds you and you find him....what a reunion. Much like the prodigal going home. I was lost, but now I am found. No longer afraid or alone. With Jesus I shall be for eternity. WHAT A PROMISE!

Don't forget the revival this coming week! I hope you will earnestly consider attending every night you physically can. Your attendance will be invaluable to our service.

Thank you so much for being here today, I pray God will bless you for your attendance!

Bro Taylor Gregory

Don't forget dinner that this Thursday evening at 5:40. Bring your food and come on. We will be having a regular preaching church service on Thursday evening to get our hearts and minds prepared for the revival meeting that will start on Friday evening. Your attendance is not only wanted, but needed.

BIBLE TRIVIA:

Last Week's Question: Who planted the first garden? Answer: God (Genesis 2:8)

This Week's Question: Who was the first metal craftsman?

Consider what Jesus can Do

He Can Save

Keep you from falling

Help those who are tempted

Do for us more than we ask or think

Make all grace abound

Ladies don't forget that we will be having a dinner this coming Saturday evening at 5:00
