PASTOR'S COMMENTS

Today my comments will be brief, but I pray will be helpful. Sometimes we don't understand all of the reasons why things happen. In fact, life leaves us with lots of questions. We have good days and bad days; joy and sorrow. Life isn't easy. However, we do not have to go through this life alone. We all have our friends. We enjoy sharing good days with them, and true friends we can share our sorrows with. Despite having some wonderful earthly friends, my best friend is my Brother, Jesus Christ. He's everything to me. He's walked through the lowest valleys and climbed the highest mountains with me. Do you know him?

"Life is easy when you're up on the mountain, and you've got peace of mind like you've never known. Then things change and you're down in the valley. That's when faith is really put to the test." --- God on The Mountain

Vacation Bible School

A meeting is planned for next Sunday afternoon for those involved in the Vacation Bible School. It would be appreciated if everyone could be available and have their information available to share with the group. i.e. lessons, crafts, etc. Plans are to eat after church and come back for the meeting at 2:00.

Our dinner time together has become a weekly event that we all look forward to. If you haven't joined us for our mid-week dinner, why not pick up your favorite food, bring a sandwich, a banana split, or anything you prefer and join us this week. It's a great time to draw closer to each other and learn about each other.

BIBLE TRIVIA:

Last Week's Question: Who was the first metal craftsman? Answer: Tubal-Cain (Genesis 4:22)

This Week's Question: Who was the first farmer?

Wind and Thunder

An Indian attended a worship service where he heard a loud, thunderous sermon with little substance. Someone asked him how he liked the sermon. "High wind, big thunder, no rain" he replied.

I think we can all agree it is raining at Mt. Calvary. Thank you Father.

Consider the turtle. He makes progress only when he sticks his neck out.

And Peter answered him and said, Lord, if it be thou, bid me come unto thee on the water. And he said, Come. And when Peter was come down out of the ship, he walked on the water, to go to Jesus.

Matthew 14:28-29

That you and I might be redeemed and enter pearly gates.
