LORD'S SUPPER

PASTOR'S COMMENTS

In my heart I believe the Lord wants us to have a servant's heart. There is a song that I've heard that goes a little like, "He compels me to go, when I had rather stay, He has sent me another valley once again today. My self determined will keeps tearing it apart, but once the works completed I will have a servant's heart." One of the things I have always prayed for throughout my ministry is that God would allow me to become a servant to all, much like Paul related in 1 Corinthians 9:22. He became what the people were so that he might win them to the Lord. For me, I guess I have struggled with that willingness to just give in to His will. It's hard. Sometimes I just need to step back and remind myself....it is all for Him....because of Him. My prayer today is that I will have a servant's hear; that I will go when it's time to go, and stay when it's time to stay. He knows us better than we know ourselves. Lord, make me better for you!

Thank you for coming today. Our Sanctuary looks a little different today. We will be having our Lord's supper service following our morning worship service! We do that for our fellow members only here at Mt. Calvary. It's not because we don't love and appreciate your attendance, but it is OUR church ordinance. I pray God has and will bless your attendance.

Oh help me Lord to sing Thy praise more and more each day
Though I am growing weary along life's rugged way.
The many years You've given me now start to take their toll
But I am thankful to you Lord for the song within my soul.
So I will sing for you dear Lord as each day passes by
And lift my voice to praise your Name up to the bright blue sky.
Then when my time on earth is done and I have reached my goal
I'll give you thanks again my Lord for putting a song in my soul.
