PASTOR'S COMMENTS

We Shall Meet. It seems like we have lost a lot of our loved ones recently here at Mt. Calvary; husbands, friends, parents, and dear loved ones that have been hard for us to deal with. It is one of life's hardest realities that we all must pass that way at some point. The biggest question is where we go. For the redeemed by grace we shall meet someday down at the throne of God where we will be praising the name of the Lord forever. I love family reunions down here because it allows me to see many people that I haven't been able to see in a long time. Can you imagine when we all get home? I'm looking forward to seeing my loved ones who have passed beyond, but I am most excited to be reunited with my Savior. Oh, we shall meet someday.

Thank you so much for being here today. Please follow the leadership of the Holy Spirit.

I am going to miss you all next week!

Bro Taylor Gregory

Dear Lord, please bless all those in pain,
Please comfort those who grieve,
Please show how love can find a way
For all those who believe.

Please shown them how your tender care
Will never fail nor cease. . .
Please be with those who grieve, O Lord,
And bless their hearts with peace.

It took a lot of food every day to feed Solomon's court. The scripture says his provision for one day was thirty measures of fine flour, and threescore measures of meal, ten fat oxen, and twenty oxen out of the pastures, and an hundred sheep, beside harts, and roebucks, and fallowdeer, and fatted fowl. 1 Kings 4:23
