OPENING COMMENTS:

Welcome to the final service for the year 2017. When we meet again, it will be 2018. This has been quite an eventful year and God has truly blessed all of us here at Mt. Calvary. Our desire for the new year should be to love Him more, serve Him more and praise Him more. When you look back at this past year, count your blessings and thank Him for them. Try to name them one by one. You might be surprised at all the blessings He has poured out upon you. Also remember the bad times and thank Him for those too because during the bad times is when we grow as Christians. Thank you all for being here today. We love the Lord and we love you too.

Never deprive someone of hope; it might be all they have.

Grace For The Unlived Year

Midnight strikes and the old year's gone we close the tablets we've written on

And torn 'twixt hope and doubt and fear we open the book of the unlived year!

An unlived year! Ah, stained with tears are the well-thumbed volumes of other years.

Soiled by blunders and black regret are the pages we read with our eyelids wet.

But fresh in our hands once more is laid a clean new book by the Master made.

Unmarred are the pages lying quietly there, twelve new chapters all fresh and fair.

It is ours to write the daily tale of how we conquer or how we fail, Of struggle and effort and hope that wakes like a song in the heart, when the bright day breaks.

Yes fresh in our hands with the title clear is the challenge now of an unlived year!

This uncharted course we've never known, but with Jesus, our Savior, we hasten on!

Old Fashioned Gospel Hour

Don't forget that we will be going to tape the Old Fashioned Gospel Hour in January.

Ability will enable a man to go to the top, but it takes character to keep him there.

The righteousness of the perfect shall direct his way: but the wicked shall fall by his own wickedness.

Proverbs 11:5
