On May 9, 1914 President Woodrow Wilson proclaimed the first Mother's Day. He asked Americans on that day to give a public "thank you" to their mothers and all mothers. On this Mother's Day we hope you will do just that, and it is our prayer that our mothers will continue to be blessed by our Heavenly Father. Let's take this time of worship together to praise the Lord for all He has done for every one of us.

Take care of your reputation, it is the most valuable asset you have.

The first step to wisdom is silence; the second is listening.

A wise man will hear, and will increase learning; and a man of understanding shall attain unto wise counsels:

Proverbs 1:5

Don't forget Wednesday evenings fellowship meal. Why not join us with your favorite meal and good conversation.

The Unknown

Today my soul is reaching out for something that's unknown,
I cannot grasp or fathom it for it's known to God alone -
I cannot hold or harness it or put it into form
For it's as uncontrollable as the wind before the storm
I know not where it came from or whither it will go
For it's as inexplicable as the restless winds that blow -
And like the wind it too will pass and leave nothing more behind
Than the "memory of a mystery" that blew across my mind.
But like the wind it will return to keep reminding me
That everything that has been is what again will be.
For there is nothing that is new beneath God's timeless sun,
And present, past and future are all molded into one.
And east and west and north and south the same wind keeps on blowing,
While rivers run on endlessly yet the sea's not overflowing -
And the restless unknown longing of my searching soul won't cease
Until God comes in glory and my soul at last finds peace.

Revival season is at the door and we need to be in prayer for all revivals this year. Let's pray that God's people will be prepared for revival so that lost souls can be saved.

Who can find a virtuous woman? for her price is far above rubies.
The heart of her husband doth safely trust in her, so that he shall have no need of spoil. She will do him good and not evil all the days of her life.
