Welcome To Mt Calvary

OPENING COMMENTS

This week our nation will be celebrating Independence Day. A great number of men and women have been killed in the line of duty so that we might be free, but our freedoms are not free. When we think about being free, the scripture tells us in John 8:36: "If the Son therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed." Only through the shed blood of Christ can we be free indeed. Our prayer is that as this holiday of independence approaches, you are free from the bondage of sin. If you are lost, our prayer is that God will convict your heart, that you will make an altar somewhere, call upon His name and be saved.

Services Today

Bro. Brad Hicks will be preaching for us this morning and Eld Roger Holland will be here to preach for us this evening. Please pray for both of these me. Also, please make an extra effort to be in attendance for the evening service.

To Sis Jean Williams. She is celebrating a birthday today. Why not give her a call and extend your best wishes to her.

Also, a Happy Birthday to Sis Karen Simmons on Thursday the 5th.

DON'T CONFUSE COMFORT WITH HAPPINESS.

It's not the outlook but the uplook that counts.

Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God.

Hebrews 12:2

Colors

The purple of the iris, the golden daffodil
The yellow of forsythia that blooms upon the hill
The pink and white of hyacinths, their luscious fragrance spread
The tulips blooming round my door all decked in gorgeous red.
How beautiful the colors that God hath given me
Oh praise His name for all good things throughout eternity.
