Welcome To Mt Calvary

=====

The story is told of a little girl who lived near a cemetery and often had to walk through it after dark. Someone asked her, "Are you ever afraid of walking in the cemetery after dark?" The little girl replied, "Oh no, you see my home is just beyond." Her home may have been just beyond the cemetery, but we know that our home is just "beyond" too. Jesus had some harsh things to say about the religious leaders of His day, and consequently, they put Him to death laying Him in a borrowed tomb, but the tomb had to release the body of our Lord and Savior. Jesus said to Mary, "I ascend unto my Father, and your Father; and to my God, and your God." What wonderful words that Jesus said to her in that moment of time, and if you have been born again, He still says this to you today. Thank God for the empty tomb.

Visiting Preacher

Our visiting preacher for this morning is Eld David Witty. Please pray for him and our service.

INSTEAD OF USING THE WORDS, "IF ONLY", TRY SUBSTITUTING THE WORDS, "NEXT TIME."

BIBLE TRIVIA:

Last Week's Question: What wise king made an alliance with Egypt when he married the Pharaoh's daughter? Answer: Solomon (1 Kings 3:1)

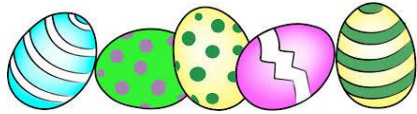

This Week's Question: What Egyptian king gave refuge to Jeroboam when he fled from Solomon?

Humor is to life what shock absorbers are to automobiles.

A merry heart doeth good like a medicine: but a broken spirit drieth the bones.

Proverbs 17:22

Everlasting Lord

The sun is brightly shining,
The rain has gone away
The clouds have drifted off someplace
To where we cannot say.
No matter what the day brings
No matter toil or strife
No matter pain or suffering
We go through in this life
Our Lord is ever with us
He knows each tear we shed
And tomorrow will be better
If by His hand we're led.
So look up to the Heavens
Trust only in His Word
For God is our Redeemer
Our Everlasting Lord.
