WELCOME OUR NEW PASTOR

What a wonderful way to start a new week. Being in the Lord’s House this morning is a blessing and we should all be thankful that we have the opportunity to gather together. The Lord’s work is the most important work you will ever do. Let’s put the world aside and worship Him today.

This week spring arrives (Thursday). Not only is it a new season weatherwise, but this week also begins a new season for our church as our new Pastor will begin his work here at Mt Calvary. Everyone please pray for him and his family as they make the transition to our congregation. We are so thrilled and delighted to have him and his family.

WHAT’S IN A NAME:

The name Ananias means “the Lord is gracious.”

Join us Wednesday evening for our 6:00 meal.

BIBLE TRIVIA:

Last Week’s Question: What Christian shaved his head at Cencrea in connection with a vow? Answer: Paul (Acts 18:18)

This Week’s Question: What bizarre person saw Jesus from far off and ran to worship him?

Wednesday Night Bible

Join us at 6:00 for a bring-along dinner, and then at 7:00 for our mid-week Bible Study.

Living a Christian life does not come easy; it takes practice. Choose to serve the Lord and keep at it. It is truly a blessing.

I am come a light into the world, that whosoever believeth on me should not abide in darkness.

John 12:46

For the past 20 weeks our Bible Trivia questions have contained one thing in common. The first person to correctly identify the commonality of the questions to Sis Stella will receive a sweet treat.

Tears

We shed many tears while here on this earth,
They begin for us all at the moment of birth
They follow us down through the years of our life
Through happiness, pain, discomfort and strife.

The little ones cry for their mothers and dads
They cry for the things they wish that they had.
Then a little bit older the reasons will change,
But there is the way life must re-arrange.

We shed tears of joy when our children are born,
We shed tears of sadness when feeling forlorn.
We shed tears of grief when our loved ones we lose,
And most tears are shed over things we don't choose.

But some morning yonder there's coming a time
We'll dwell in a world full of beauty sublime,
A place where the Savior awaits us to come,
And no tears are shed in that place called home.
