Pastor's comments

Scripture of the Week: Phil 4: 11-13

Not that I speak in respect of want: for I have learned, in whatsoever state I am, therewith to be content. I know both how to be abased, and I know how to abound: every where and in all things I am instructed both to be full and to be hungry, both to abound and to suffer need. I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me.

Contentment is not the natural state of man. Covetousness, discontent, and murmuring grow in our hearts like weeds in a garden. They do not need to be sown there. . . but they surely must be plucked out! God desires that His children be content. We can only do that when we abide daily in the Mercy and Grace of Jesus Christ. Let us strive, like the Apostle Paul, to abound in the the Lord in every situation of life.

WHAT'S IN A NAME:

The name SOLOMON means "PEACE."

The Rambos, among others, recorded a song titled "The Unseen Hand." The lyrics for the first stanza are:

There is an unseen hand to me,
That leads thro' ways I cannot see,
While going thru this world of woe,
This hand still leads me as I go.

As frail human beings we should always be relying on the Lord and following after Him to lead us where He wants us to go. So many times, though, we tend to wander off on our own. Keeping in step with the Lord can sometimes be difficult, but diligently striving to follow in His footsteps is the greatest blessing.

BIBLE TRIVIA:

Last Week's Question: Who ran to meet the Lord in the plains of Mamre? ANSWER: ABRAHAM (Genesis 18:1-2)

This Week's Question: Who sent Cush to run to David with the news of Absalom's death?

^^

Miracles are not always visible to the naked eye, but those who live by faith can see them clearly. Living by faith enables the born again Christian to see the glory of God.
