PASTOR'S COMMENTS

Scripture for the Week: Hosea 10:12

Sow to yourselves in righteousness, reap in mercy; break up your fallow ground: for it is time to seek the LORD, till he come and rain righteousness upon you.

The prophet Hosea was speaking during a time when Israel was reaping the heavy hand of God's judgement because they had sowed wickedness and iniquity. How can we expect to reap the sweet mercies of God if we do not sow the righteousness of Christ? As we start into this week of effort meetings, let us truly seek the Lord that he might break up the fallow ground of our hearts and rain righteousness and mercy and salvation upon us.

BIBLE TRIVIA:

Last Week's Question: According to Isaiah, what sort of people can run and not be weary? ANSWER: They that wait upon the Lord (Isaiah 40:31)

This Week's Question: What prophet ran after another prophet to accept the appointment as his successor?

Those who have been born again are under no condemnation. They have been judged NOT GUILTY for all eternity.

There is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit. For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus hath made me free from the law of sin and death.

Romans 8:1-2

PLEASE NOTE:

Just a reminder that we are not hugging, shaking hands, or getting too close to people.

Happy Birthday to Ellie Chandler tomorrow the 3rd of August.

Let's all be in prayer for our revival this week.
