PASTOR'S COMMENTS

Scripture of the Week: Heb 13:5

Let your conversation be without covetousness; and be content with such things as ye have: for he hath said, I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee.

Is this not the most comforting and reassuring promise from the Lord? Come what may, he will never leave nor forsake us. He told Abraham, "I am thy shield and thy exceeding great reward" (Gen 15:1). What else could we ask for? The world teaches us to be discontent with what we have, to strive for more and to envy others. God teaches us that He is sufficient for all our needs. As we grow more content simply abiding in the Savior's love, we will find true Christian happiness.

WHAT'S IN A NAME:

The name HOSEA means "SALVATION."

BIBLE TRIVIA:

Last Week's Question: When the man of Benjamin saw the ark of the covenant captured by the Philistines, what Israelite did he run to tell?
ANSWER: The priest Eli (1 Samuel 4:12-18)

This Week's Question: What judge's mother ran to tell her husband Manoah that an angel had appeared to her?

Every time you thank the Lord you are acknowledging Him as your Lord and provider.
Thank Him often for He is so worthy.

Oh that men would praise the LORD for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men! And let them sacrifice the sacrifices of thanksgiving, and declare his works with rejoicing.

Psalm 107:21-22

To Kathy Roberts who celebrated a birthday last Wednesday, the 19th.

Last Wednesday evening or this morning an updated membership list was provided to you. Please review this document and if you should find errors (because I am not perfect and old and also forgetful), please let me know in writing. Please do not come to me and tell me something is missing or something is wrong. I will need it in writing. Thank you in advance for your cooperation in this.
