PASTOR'S COMMENTS

Scripture of the Week: Isaiah 53:3-5

He is despised and rejected of men; a man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief: and we hid as it were our faces from him; he was despised, and we esteemed him not. Surely he hath borne our griefs, and carried our sorrows: yet we did esteem him stricken, smitten of God, and afflicted. But he was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon him; and with his stripes we are healed.

Never let us forget the sufferings of our Lord. He suffered at the hands of all men (Jew and Gentile alike) that he might show mercy unto all men. He suffered in our place. He received the full punishment for sin that we should have received. Because the wrath of God was poured out upon Him, we can be reconciled to God. Truly His blood has made us free! What a saviour is Jesus!

We all have a tendency to complain once in a while. Whenever tempted to complain or to grumble, talk to the Lord and He will put a song in your heart.

Do all things without murmurings and disputings: that ye may be blameless and harmless, the sons of God, without rebuke, in the midst of a crooked and perverse nation, among whom ye shine as lights in the world.

Philippians 2:14-5

God Has the Answers

Although you're tired and weary, just rest the whole night through

As God gives us the mornings to see all things anew.

For things look so much brighter when they're slept on for a while

You wake up in the morning and soon you want to smile.

You look and see the sunshine, the bright blue sky above

You wonder why you fretted and you know God is love.

With all this to surround you there's naught but this to say

And so with song you praise Him, give thanks for this new day.

Yes, God has all the answers to probems big and small

We only have to tell Him, He's at our beck and call.

So we must take our burdens and lay them at His feet

Then trust unto His wisom that all our needs He'll meet.
