PASTOR'S COMMENTS

Scripture of the Week: II Cor 5:21

For he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him.

For those who have been saved by the precious blood of Jesus Christ, there is nothing left to prevent us from full communion and fellowship with God. Because Christ took our sin, He is able to bestow upon us His righteous perfection. He has draped his spotless garment upon our shoulders and the filthy rags of our sins are no more in the Father's sight. Oh, what a joyful thought! Let us rejoice for we are "accepted in the beloved", and there is none to condemn us seeing as God hath fully accepted us.

WHAT'S IN A NAME:

The name PAUL means "SMALL."

BIBLE TRIVIA:

Last Week's Question: What two women ran from Jesus' empty tomb to tell the disciples what had happened? ANSWER: Mary and Mary Magdalene (Matthew 28:8)

This Week's Question: What man ran to meet Abraham's servant at the well?

Try diligently to maintain positive thoughts. Good thought choices keep you closer to the Lord.

Search me, O God, and know my heart: try me, and know my thoughts: And see if there be any wicked way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting.

Psalm 139: 23-24

Please remember to pray for our nation and President Trump and First Lady Melania as they are recovering from COVID 19.

Someone is celebrating a birthday TODAY. And that someone is Mike Jeannette. Happy Birthday dear brother.

Business Meeting Next Sunday

A heartfelt tear can show our love
As words can never do;
It says, "I want to share your pain –
My heart goes out to you.
