Scripture of the Week: Psalms 22:14

I am poured out like water, and all my bones are out of joint: my heart is like wax; it is melted in the midst of my bowels.

In this Psalm, David writes not of himself but, inspired by the Holy Spirit, he writes of the coming Messiah. Our Lord poured himself out like water on Calvary. He suffered as no man ever would that he might deliver us as no man ever could! The throne of grace which has been opened to us was prepared by the physical and spiritual suffering of Jesus Christ. When we find ourselves suffering in body and spirit, let us joyfully drink from the same cup as our Lord, confident that one day we will ascend to paradise with Him.

WHAT'S IN A NAME:

The name ZEPHANIAH means "THE LORD HIDES."

BIBLE TRIVIA:

Last Week's Question: What man ran to meet Abraham's servant at the well? ANSWER: Laban (Genesis 24:29)

This Week's Question: What was the farmer Elisha doing when Elijah threw his mantle upon him?

Learn to rejoice in trials and tribulations because spiritual blessings come wrapped in trials.

My brethren, count it all joy when ye fall into divers temptations; Knowing this, that the trying of your faith worketh patience.

James 1:2-3

O Lord, give me the grace to be Content with what You give to me!
No! More than that,
let me rejoice
In all You send me -
It's Your choice.

Please remember the following in your prayers:

"Bringing in the Sheaves" was written in 1874 by Knowles Shaw, who was inspired by Psalm 126:6, "He that goeth forth and weepeth, bearing precious seed, shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him." Shaw also wrote music for these words, but they are now usually set to a tune by George Minor, written in 1880.
