Welcome Comments

The season of giving is upon us. Yesterday evening during my walk in the neighborhood I saw several of my neighbors decorating the front of their homes for the upcoming Christmas season, the season of giving. What a wonderful time of the year for sharing gifts, food, memories and the love of God. This season is celebrated in remembrance of the birth of our Savior Jesus Christ, but during all the celebrating, partying, dining and visiting, we should bear in mind that not only did Jesus come as a babe in a manger, He came to save mankind, was crucified on a cross and gave His life for all of us. He was the greatest gift ever given. Above all else, let's keep Him in our Christmas season.

=====
In this world we are encouraged to be self-sufficient, but reliance on God produces abundant living in His Kingdom.

I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without me ye can do nothing.
John 15:5

Prayer List

Please continue to pray for Sis Georgia Farmer as she recuperates from a broken hip. Sis Wanda spoke with Wayne this past week and he informed her that Sis Georgia would be going home next Thursday.

Bro Mike Jeannette's father is improving from COVID but we still need to keep him in our prayers that God will continue to heal and strengthen him.

Please continue to keep the Harrison family in your prayers and especially Rachel.

Please pray for Sis Stella's little dog, Garth. He broke his leg this past week and will be having surgery on Tuesday.

Please pray for our nation and that God's will be done.

We want to wish a Happy Birthday to our dear sister, Lisa Parker, on Tuesday, December 1. Sis Lisa is not a member of Mt Calvary, but she is so dear to all of us as she is a great help when we have problems with the website. Happy Birthday dear sister.

CHRISTMAS

There is no time like Christmas
A time of peace and joy
Brought down to earth and all mankind
In a tiny baby boy.
But oh that babe was more you see
He was the Son of God
To help us as we travel here
Upon this lonely sod.
So especially at this time of year
Let's lift our hearts in praise
And thank Him for our blessings
That he gives throughout our days.
