Pastor's Comments

Scripture of the Week: I Corinthians 7:20

Let every man abide in the same calling wherein he was called.

Many Christians think that they must undertake some great work in order to serve the Lord. Some may feel that because they are not preachers, deacons, teachers or song leaders that they are not "fully" serving the Lord. But it is not office, it is earnestness; it is not position, it is grace which will enable us to glorify God. Every child of God has a calling upon their lives - butcher, baker, candlestick maker. And that calling is important in the work of the Lord. Let us never think too highly of ourselves, but let us think very highly of the calling where the Lord has placed us. Charles Spurgeon wrote, "Every lawful trade may be sanctified by the gospel to noblest ends". As we start a new year of service to our Lord, let us resolve to truly abide in the same calling wherein we have been called.

BIBLE TRIVIA:

Last Week's Question: What lieutenant of David had his barley fields destroyed by Absalom? ANSWER: Joab (2 Samuel 14:30)

This Week's Question: What king, famous for his building projects, also planted vineyards, gardens, and orchards?

Always strive to follow where the Lord may lead. He is the light that dawns upon us to guide our feet into the way of peace.

And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth.

John 1:14

Prayer List

Continue to pray for Sis Georgia Farmer and her condition as she struggles to regain her strength.

Please continue to pray for Bro Mike Jeannette's father. Please continue to keep the Harrison family in your prayers and especially Rachel.

Please continue to remember Regina Brooks in your prayers. She is the wife of a former Pastor and really stands in need of prayer

Also remember Jenna Johnson (wife of a former Pastor) as she also has COVID. She is improving but still needs our prayers

Pray for our city and the recent bombing in our downtown area

NO WEDNESDAY EVENING SERVICE THIS WEEK.

As you can see, I wrote this poem in 2003. I had awakened right before 12:00 AM on New Year's Eve and just stood at the window when the Lord started pouring this poem through my mind. I certainly hope you enjoy it. Sis Stella

The Midnight Hour

I stood by my window as midnight drew nigh,
And looked at the heaven of black in the sky.
My thoughts seemed to hang there as stars overhead,
And I thought about family and loved ones now dead,
And their faces rolled by like a white show of film
But the one that was dearest was that one of Him.

Oh I've never seen Him, don't know how He'd look,
But I know all about Him, cause I've read His life's book.

And I met Him one winter when I was a girl,
And during that meeting, He changed my whole world.
He came soft and gentle, a tug now and then;
Never gave up on me 'til I yielded to Him.

So now in this hour between old and new,
I just want to thank Him for seeing me through
And when life is finished and my work is o'er
He'll take me to live on that evergreen shore.
Sometimes I just long for that heavenly place
To be home with the Father and look on His face.
And some day I'll be there with loved ones gone on
As He leads me safely to my brand new home.
