Pastor's Comments

Scripture of the Week: Psalm 118:5-6 I called upon the LORD in distress: the LORD answered me, and set me in a large place. The Lord is on my side; I will not fear: what can man do unto me?

There are times that we see and hear so much negativity that we are tempted to get caught up in it ourselves. When these times occur, stop, think, and pray that God will give you the strength to change the attitude of negativity developing in your mind. Nothing makes satan happier than to see one of God's children feeling stressed, anxious or depressed, but praise be to our Lord and Savior that He can, and will, help us through every situation we face. Let's put aside all bad thoughts this first Sunday morning of 2021, center our hearts and minds upon Jesus and worship today in spirit and in truth.

We are so very happy to see each of you this morning.

BIBLE TRIVIA:

Last Week's Question: What king, famous for his building projects, also planted vineyards, gardens, and orchards?
ANSWER: Solomon (Ecclesiastes 2:4-5)

This Week's Question: Who came to Peter late at night and released him from prison?

Living close to the Lord may not be an easy path, but if we try our best, He will provide joy in our lives. We were created to praise Him.

I will praise thee, O Lord my God, with all my heart: and I will glorify thy name for evermore.

Psalms 86:12
