Pastor's Comments

Scripture of the Week: Genesis 1:4

And God saw the light, that it was good: and God divided the light from the darkness.

In the beginning, God made a separation between things that are opposed to one another. Light and dark are opposites. Where one exists, the other cannot - and so God decreed a separation. John tells us that Jesus is the light of God and that the darkness of sin, rebellion and self-will cannot withstand him. Once that light is shed abroad in our hearts through the new birth, we are bidden to separate from the darkness of the world. "What communion hath light with darkness . . . be ye separate". Jesus was holy, harmless, undefiled, separate from sinners; and, as he was, so we are to be nonconformists to the world, dissenting from all sin, and distinguished from the rest of mankind by our likeness to our Master.

O LORD, how manifold are thy works! in wisdom hast thou made them all: the earth is full of thy riches. Nehemiah 9:6

BIBLE TRIVIA:

Last Week's Question: Who came to Peter late at night and released him from prison? ANSWER: An angel (Acts 12:6-17)

This Week's Question: Who had a late night visit from an angel, who assured him that he would be safe aboard a storm tossed ship?

A life lived for the Lord is a life worth living. Worship Him as King of Kings while walking hand in hand with Him down the path of life.

And this is life eternal, that they might know thee the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom thou hast sent.

John 17:3

This World of Mine

This world of mine lies sleeping in a wintry bed of snow
And rests in peaceful solitude awaiting spring, I know.
It basks in warming rays of gold from sun at hilltop's crest
And bides the savage winter chill until, at spring's behest. .
A fragile touch of green is seen beneath the melting snow
And in a perfect moment God commands the bud to grow.
To thrust its heart in April's bliss and fill the drowsy air
With perfume from exotic worlds in this my season fair.
