Pastor's Comments

Scripture of the Week: II Pet 1:3-4

According as his divine power hath given unto us all things that pertain unto life and godliness, through the knowledge of him that hath called us to glory and virtue: Whereby are given unto us exceeding great and precious promises: that by these ye might be partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust.

Those who have come to a knowledge of Christ through repentance and faith have experienced the divine and miraculous power of God. He gave us life and godliness when He saved us from sin and death. Now we are called to shine forth in virtue. Moreover, we have become partakers of The Divine Nature! The old nature of sin has been crucified and God has filled us with His nature of righteousness. Glorious and sublime thought!. Let us show forth the true nature of God - because the world is watching.

Always remember Sis Georgia Farmer in your prayers

Continue to remember Mike Jeannette in your prayers

Pray for Rose Wright who is still recuperating from breaking her wrist

Always remember the lost in your prayers. They need the Lord more than anyone

Pray for God's leadership in the selection of a revival helper

BIBLE TRIVIA:

Last Week's Question: Where did shepherds receive angels as late visitors? Answer: Near Bethlehem (Luke 2:8-16)

This Week's Question: Who took Saul's spear after sneaking into his camp late one night?

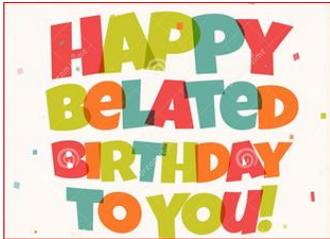

Waiting, trusting and hoping are all connected and woven together, but trusting is the central strand. Of the three, trusting in Him is what God desires most from His children.

That by two immutable things, in which it was impossible for God to lie, we might have a strong consolation, who have fled for refuge to lay hold upon the hope set before us: Which hope we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and steadfast, and which entereth into that within the veil;

BUSINESS MEETING TODAY

to Joe Harrison who celebrated a birthday this past Thursday, March 11.
Love you Brother Joe.

We have been notified by the Old Fashion Gospel Hour that Mt. Calvary will air on March 21st (next Sunday morning). For those who haven't been watching, Bro. Nathan preached there not too long ago, but they will use an old video for the singing. Check your channels for this upcoming taping.

Visiting Preacher:

We will be having a visiting preacher on Wednesday evening, March 24 at 7:00. Bro Phil Mayle will be here to preach for us and your attendance will be greatly appreciated.
