Pastor's Comments

Scripture of the Week: Luke 24:6

He is not here, but is risen

Today we remember the resurrection of our Lord. His bodily resurrection on the 3rd day is THE sign that He is who he says He is and can do what He says He can do. He alone can save men from their sins because He alone could atone for those sins by His death. But he did not stay in the grave - He is Risen! And now all we who have believed in Him know that one day we shall be risen with Him.

Always remember Sis Georgia Farmer in your prayers

We are glad to have Rose Wright back with us in service. She is still in the healing process and let's continue to pray for her.

Always remember the lost in your prayers. They need the Lord more than anyone.

Start praying now for our annual revival that begins the first Sunday in August.

Continue to pray for Regina Brooks. She is the wife of a former Pastor.

BIBLE TRIVIA:

Last Week's Question: Who attacked a Midianite camp late at night? Answer: Gideon and his men (Judges 7:19)

This Week's Question: Who paid the young Samuel a late-night call?

God is ever near and reading your every thought. We may view most of our thoughts as fleeting and worthless but our thoughts are precious to the Lord.

O lord, thou hast searched me, and known me. Thou knowest my downsitting and mine uprising, thou understandest my thought afar off.

Psal 139:1-2

Happy Birthday to Faye Jenkins
on Saturday April 10.

Last Sunday Bro Chandler advised the church that due to a prior commitment Bro Likens would not be able to help in the revival. Please pray that God will let us know who He wants to assist Bro Chandler.

The Cross

Our minds begin to wander back when Eastertime draws near
To a precious place called Calvary that we all hold so dear.
For it was on that lonely hill that Jesus bled and died
A crown of thorns upon His head, blood flowing from his side.

We see Him there as He propels the cross along the road
We see Him as He stumbles underneath the heavy load
We see these things and what took place as from great distant lands
We hear the hammer as it strikes the nails into His hands.

Our minds can see His arms outstretched in love to everyone,
And hear the echoes of the cries, "Are you God's only Son"?
Our ears can't hear the words He spoke, nor feel the pain he bore
We cannot see but through mind's eye, the blood-stained robe He wore.

But this was not the ending for our God had made a way
For all mankind to be redeemed because of Easter day
If we believe and trust in Him, the Lord's most precious son
We'll fly away some glorious day when victory shall be won,
