Pastor's Comments

Scripture of the Week: I Samuel 15:22

And Samuel said, Hath the LORD as great delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices, as in obeying the voice of the LORD? Behold, to obey is better than sacrifice, and to hearken than the fat of rams.

Saul, the King of Israel, knowingly disobeyed the command of the Lord and tried to excuse it away with sacrifices. It did not work. God took the throne from Saul and all of his house. God demands obedience above all things. The Christian who knowingly disobeys the commandments of the Lord and thinks that outwards acts of devotion will bridge the gap is in danger of severe chastisement. Jesus said, "If you love me, keep my commandments."

Always remember Sis Georgia Farmer in your prayers

Always remember the lost in your prayers. They need the Lord more than anyone.

Start praying now for our annual revival that begins the first Sunday in August.

Please continue to remember Rachel Harrison in your prayers each day.

Continue to pray for Regina Brooks and for any others that are suffering from stokes or cancer.

Pray for a revival helper

God prepares each day with the most tender concern and attention to detail. Instead of approaching each day as a blank page, try living it in response to everything around you. Be constantly on the lookout for what God I doing.

As for God, his way is perfect: the word of the LORD is tried: he is a buckler to all those that trust in him.

Psalm 18:30
