Pastor's Comments

Scripture of the Week: II Corinthians 7:10

For godly sorrow worketh repentance to salvation not to be repented of: but the sorrow of the world worketh death.

Not all sorrow is godly sorrow and not all repentance is repentance unto salvation. The sorrow of the world does not work salvation but death. Far too many people think that just because they felt some pangs of guilt over sin and prayed for forgiveness that they are saved. The fruits of their lives often tell a different story. Godly sorrow is a divine work of the Holy Spirit in the heart of every sinner and repentance unto salvation is a gift from God that results in peace with God. If you have never really felt Godly sorrow, you need to pray!

It was wonderful to see Sis Georgia back in service last Sunday. Please continue to remember her in your prayers.

The lost.

Start praying now for our annual revival that begins the first Sunday in August.

Please continue to remember Rachel Harrison in your prayers each day.

Continue to pray for Regina Brooks and for any others that are suffering from stokes or cancer.

Pray for a revival helper

BIBLE TRIVIA:

Last Week's Question: Who frightened his followers, who thought he was a ghost when he passed by them late at night?
Answer: Jesus, when he walked on the lake (Mark 6:48)

This Week's Question: What New Testament character was the "voice crying in the wilderness?"

Trouble and distress are woven into the very fabric of each life. Only in Christ do we have the power to face the endless flow of problems with good cheer.

“Why art thou cast down, O my soul? and why art thou disquieted in me? hope thou in God: for I shall yet praise him for the help of his countenance.”

Psalm 42:5

QUOTES:

One of the best ways to get on your feet is to first get on your knees.

Anyman whois too busy to pray is busier than God ever intended he should be.

FYI: These quotes originally appeared in the June

1980 printing of the Baptist Banner.

Our works of service in Christ's name
May ot be ntoiced by our peers;
But one day what we've done for Him
Will be revealedwhen He appears.
