Pastor's Comments

Scripture of the Week: Malachi 3:6

For I am the LORD, I change not;

We live in a world that is ever-changing. Many of us have lived through great medical, educational, technological, and social changes. Truly, all the things around us are constantly changing so quickly that most of us can't keep up. What was good yesterday is bad today. . . and vica versa. Treasured values of yesterday are counted as dross today. Things once avoided at all cost are now embraced and elevated. Where are we to turn for stability? Where is the sure anchor for our soul? Upon what firm foundation shall we build our lives? Jesus! For He is the Lord and changes not.
