Pastor's Comments

Scripture of the Week:    Isaiah 40:31 But they that wait upon the LORD shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk, and not faint.

Happy 4th of July. Today Americans will be observing the independence of the greatest nation in the world. The United States of America represents freedom and hope for the rest of the world. Despite the current condition our country is in, we must still pray for its well-being. Today we must pray harder than we have ever prayed and ask the Lord to change minds and break hearts in ways that He never has. Freedom has never been free and it never will be. God's people must be willing to turn toward Him, praying, believing and knowing that He will take care of us. He has never let us down. Let us not forget Israel and the many times God granted them mercy. We should stand behind the red, white and blue but more importantly we should stand behind the truths of God's word. May God richly bless our nation.

BIBLE TRIVIA:

Last Week's Question: Who told Saul that obeying God's voice was more important than sacrificing animals?      Answer: Samuel (1 Samuel 15:22)

This Week's Question: Which gosepl mentions the voice of Rachel weeping for her children?

+++++

Sis Nita Reid's mother went home to be with the Lord this past week. Sis Nita said she went peacefully and wants to thank the church for their many prayers prayed on their behalf.

Bearing our circumstances bravely and patiently is one of the highest forms of praise to our Heavenly Father and is also a window to the world showing the one we have our faith in.

For our heart shall rejoice in him, because we have trusted in his holy name.

Psalm 33:21

THE DAY IS DONE

*When evening shadows lengthen
Across my grassy lawn
It's just a strong reminder
That the day is almost gone.
And then I stop to wonder,
"What have I done today?"
To point someone to Jesus
As they struggled on their way.
Oh Lord my prayer shall ever be
That when my life is done
Someone can say I told them of
Your precious Holy Son.*
