Pastor's Comments

Scripture of the Week: Matthew 5:20

For I say unto you, That except your righteousness shall exceed the righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees, ye shall in no case enter into the kingdom of heaven.

The Pharisees of Jesus' day were fastidious keepers of the law. Their outward righteousness according to the law was beyond reproach. Yet Jesus declared that a person's righteousness must be even MORE to enter into heaven. The only thing greater than doing good is being good. The only way to actually be righteous is through the new birth - salvation. One we have been made righteous through repentance and faith, let us go on to also do all the works of righteousness.

BIBLE TRIVIA:

Last Week's Question: What book says that the divine voice sounds like a waterfall? Answer: Revelation (Revelation 1:15)

This Week's Question: Who said, "Is that your voice, David my son"?

Awareness of our constant need for the Lord is a great strength. Our neediness is a link to His presence.

In the day of my trouble I will call upon thee: for thou wilt answer me.

Psalm 86:7

Please mark your calendars for the revival beginning at Old Paths in Smyrna TN on August 27th running through the 29th. The helpers are Bro Nathan Chandler, Bro Jimmy Knight, Bro Benny Snoddy and Bro. Cliff Spears. Please remember this effort meeting in your prayers and attend if at all possible.
