Pastor's Comments:

Scripture of the Week: Romans 8:37

Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us.

In the verses preceding this text, Paul has listed a multitude of various trials and tribulations and asked if those things can separate us from the love of Christ. He concludes that they cannot. Not only cannot these things separate us, we can conquer them through the love of Christ. Moreover, not only shall we conquer them, we are more than conquerors through the love of Christ. Take heart saints of the Lord, the trials of this life we shall overcome, and more! All through the love of Christ for us.

BIBLE TRIVIA:

Last Week's Question: What wife of David had been married to Nabal, who died when she told him of the gifts she had given to David? Answer: Abigail (1 Samuel 25:18-20)

This Week's Question: What elderly cousin of Mary became the mother of John the Baptist?

The ultimate protection against sinking during life's storms is devoting time to develop your friendship with the Lord. That is most definitely the time to draw closer to Him.

The LORD is good unto them that wait for him, to the soul that seeketh him. It is good that a man should both hope and quietly wait for the salvation of the Lord.

Lamentations 3_25-26.

PRAYER REQUESTS:

Please continue to remember those churches without pastors.

Please continue to remember the Harrisons in your prayers.

Please remember Jo Roberts in your prayers

FROM JOYCE CALLIS OF FAITH CHURCH (please remember Richard in your prayers)

I am asking prayer for Richard Lynn Buttrey. Richard is my nephew and he had open heart surgery this past week. His breathing stopped right after surgery and they brought him back. He woke up during the night a day ago and seemed to be better. Doctors warned he was not out of the woods because of his breathing. Saturday morning he was not breathing well and gasping for breath. They have drained fluids from his lungs but he is still having difficulty. We plead for prayers for him!

DON'T FORGET TO SET YOUR CLOCKS BACK BEFORE RETIRING ON SATURDAY EVENING. WE WANT
EVERYONE TO BE ON TIME.
