Pastor's Comments:

Scripture of the Week: John 9:24-25

So for the second time they called the man who had been blind and said to him, "Give glory to God. We know that this man is a sinner." He answered, "Whether he is a sinner I do not know. One thing I do know, that though I was blind, now I see."

The Pharisees were questioning a man whose sight Jesus had restored. They were trying to lead this man into saying something they could use to accuse Jesus. Instead the man spoke the plain, unassailable truth - I was blind but now I see. This is the simple truth of what Jesus did for me. I was lost and a slave to my sins, but now I am saved and set free! I can't explain how He did it or why He did it. But the fact remains - I was blind but now I see!

Remember that your relationship with the Lord is saturated in grace and nothing you do or don't do can separate you from His presence.

For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God:

FROM JOYCE CALLIS OF FAITH CHURCH (please continue to remember Richard in your prayers)

Sis Joyce of Faith Church requests that we please remember her nephew in your prayers. He is in a very critical situation and really needs our prayers. Please pray that if it be God's will He will intervene and heal Joyce's nephew.

We want to thank God for his blessings on all of us but especially for the good report that Sis Wanda Brown got from her doctor this past week. We love you

Food For Thought

As church attendance numbers fade across the nation and online services become very convenient, it's important to remember why church attendance for you and your family matters so much. You can't serve from your sofa. You can't have community of faith on your sofa. You can't experience the power of a room full of believers worshipping together on your sofa. Christians aren't consumers. We are contributors. We don't watch. We engage. We give. We sacrifice. We encourage. We pray by laying hands on the hurting and we do life together. The church needs you. And you need the church.
