Pastor's Comments:

Scripture of the Week: Psalm 138:8

The LORD will perfect that which concerneth me: thy mercy, O LORD, endureth for ever: forsake not the works of thine own hands.

God is in the sanctification business. The scripture assures us that the children of God will be conformed to the image of Christ. How much effort do we expend trying to perfect ourselves? Yet the Psalmist says that God will perfect us. We do not get saved by works, we do not keep our salvation by works, and we are not sanctified by works! God calls us to faith and submission - then he will do the perfecting.

BIBLE TRIVIA:

Last Week's Question: What scheming princess of Tyre married and manipulated the weak Ahab and imposed her pagan religion on Israel? Answer: Jezebel (1 Kings 16-19)

This Week's Question: What Israelite woman aided the people by murdering the Canaanite captain Sisera in her tent?

Make God the focal point of your day. Just as a spinning ballerina must keep returning her eyes to a given point to maintain her balance, you must also keep returning your focus to the Lord.

And hereby we know that we are of the truth, and shall assure our hearts before him. For is our heart condemn us, God is greater than our heart, and knoweth all things.

1 John 3:19-20

Brain Teaser

How much dirt is there in a hole 1 foot by 1 foot by 1 foot?

No Wednesday night service this week.

Harvest Time

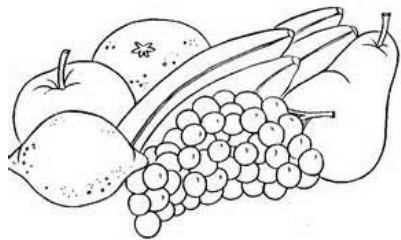

Sometimes while laboring for our Lord
We feel it's all in vain.

We wonder why we struggle through the heartaches and the pain.

We try our best to lead the lost to Calvary's lonely hill,
So they can come to know Him and experience the thrill
Of knowing they are born again, safe from a devil's hell.
And know for sure their soul's secure and everything is well.

But then so many turn away this blessing from above
Rejecting for eternity the Savior's dying love.
But surely harvest time will come and gladness we shall see

As others seek to find Him at the foot of Calvary.
Praise God the call is going out for all the world to hear
So pray that they will find Him while He is standing near.

*Then saith he unto his disciples,
The harvest truly is plenteous,
but the labourers are few;*
