Pastor's Comments:

Scripture of the Week: Romans 8:29-30

For whom he did foreknow, he also did predestinate to be conformed to the image of his Son, that he might be the firstborn among many brethren. Moreover whom he did predestinate, them he also called: and whom he called, them he also justified: and whom he justified, them he also glorified.

Paul is so confident of the hope that lies before, that he speaks of the glorification of the saints as if it has already happened. Having been saved by the blood of Christ and sealed with the earnest of the Holy Spirit, there can be no doubt that God will glorify His children at the last day. Let us abide faithfully in the sure knowledge that God will do all that he hath said and we shall be glorified. And let us live today as if we already were.

Hope you all enjoyed a wonderful Thanksgiving and are now looking forward to the Christmas Holidays.

BIBLE TRIVIA:

Last Week's Question: What Israelite woman aided the people by murdering the Cannanite captain Sisera in her tent?
Answer: Jael (Judges 4:17-22)

This Week's Question: What Jewish girl married a Persian emperor and helped save her exiled people from extermination?

God's desire is that we learn to depend on Him in every situation. He is able to move heaven and earth to accomplish this purpose, but we must follow along with Him in this training.

Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might.

Ephesians 6:10
