Opening Comments:

It is sad to say, but every day that we live, we may hurt or offend someone that we encounter in our daily walk of life. Most of the time, if not all, it is totally accidental. Sad also is the fact that many times, even though apologies are extended to the offended individual, that person is not willing to forgive and let the matter go. In doing this, they heap baggage on themselves that would otherwise be cast aside, but they also make it rather difficult for the offender to truly let go too. On the other hand we have a loving forgiving Father who will always forgive us when we fall short of what He would have us to be and He is always there to wrap His arms around us in love when we confess our sins. If you have offended someone and they won't forgive you, don't worry about it. Remember, GOD always forgives and never carries a grudge.

BIBLE TRIVIA:

Answer: Mary and Martha (Luke 10:38-42, John 11)

This Week's Question: What prophetess was the sister of two great leaders and was once afflicted with leprosy for being rebellious?

Carrying tomorrow's trouble today will only cause you to stagger under the load and eventually fall flat. Discipline yourself to live within the boundaries of today.

“But exhort one another daily, while it is called To day; lest any of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of sin.”

Hebrews 3:13

And it came to pass in those days, that there went out a decree from Caesar Augustus that all the world should be taxed. (And this taxing was first made when Cyrenius was governor of Syria.) And all went to be taxed, every one into his own city. And Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, into Judaea, unto the city of David, which is called Bethlehem; (because he was of the house and lineage of David:) To be taxed with Mary his espoused wife, being great with child. And so it was, that, while they were there, the days were accomplished that she should be delivered.

We will be having our Christmas Dinner immediately following our worship service and Business Meeting. Everyone is encouraged to stay and eat with us today. Visitors we especially invite you to join us.
