Pastor's Comments

Hebrews 12:1-2

Wherefore seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us, Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God.

Let us look to Jesus for our example in all things. He took no care for the trials of this life and was willing to suffer and forego joy in the present in order to have greater joy and peace in the future. He asks us to do the same - suffer, deny the flesh, endure hardness - that we might gain a great reward in the future. When our faith is weak; look unto Jesus. When the way grows difficult; look unto Jesus. When all others have forsaken us; look unto Jesus. He hath shown us the way, now let us walk in it.

Taste and see that God is good. The more intimately you experience Him, the more convinced you become of His goodness.

O taste and see that the LORD is good: blessed is the man that trusteth in him.

BRO COLIN DYER SUBMITTED THE FOLLOWING TO SHARE WITH US.

"A real Christian is an odd number anyway. He feels supreme love for One whom he has never seen, talks familiarly every day to Someone he cannot see, expects to go to heaven on the virtue of Another, empties himself in order to be full, admits he is wrong so he can be declared right, goes down in order to get up, is strongest when he is weakest...richest when he is poorest, and happiest when he feels worst. He dies so he can live, forsakes in order to have, gives away so he can keep, sees the invisible, hears the inaudible, and knows that which passeth knowledge. And all the while he may be confounding his critics by his unbelievable practicality: his farm may be the most productive, his business the best managed, and his mechanical skill the sharpest of anyone in his neighborhood. The man who has met God is not looking for something - he has found it; he is not searching for light - upon him the Light has already shined. His certainty may seem bigoted, but his is the assurance of one who knows by experience. His religion is not hearsay; he is not a copy, not a facsimile print; he is an original from the hand of the Holy Ghost."
