Pastor's Comments

Scripture of the Week: I Peter 5:10

But the God of all grace, who hath called us unto his eternal glory by Christ Jesus, after that ye have suffered a while, make you perfect, stablish, strengthen, settle you.

Have you been called unto God's eternal glory by Jesus Christ? This is salvation! God has poured His grace out upon the saved that we might live in eternity surrounded by His glory. But that is yet to come. In this life there is still suffering. This is purification. God is testing and trying us that we may be formed into the image of His beloved Son - our Savior - Jesus Christ. Rest assured, we shall only suffer in this world, yet a little while, then God will establish His children in perfection for all of eternity.

BIBLE TRIVIA:

Last Week's Question: Though her profession was condemned by an official decree of King Saul, the king disguised himself in order to get help from her. Who was she? Answer: The witch of Endor (1 Samuel 28)

This Week's Question: What Persian queen upset the king and his counselor by refusing to appear before them at their drunken banquet?

The best way to avoid minding other people's business is to have business of your own that is worth minding.

Do not let any set of circumstances intimidate you. The more challenging your day, the more My Power is at your disposal.

Seek the LORD, and his strength: seek his face evermore. ⁵Remember his marvellous works that he hath done; his wonders, and the judgments of his mouth; ⁶O ye seed of Abraham his servant, ye children of Jacob his chosen. ²He is the LORD our God: his judgments are in all the earth.

Psalm 105:4

Since we didn't have services last week, we want to wish Colin Dyer a belated happy birthday on January 19th.

Thought I would share my salvation poem for those of you who may have never read it.

My Salvation

His love is like a light that shines for all the world to see,
And one cold January night, His light did shine on me.
Conviction was upon my heart poured down like sheets of rain;
I knew to Him I had to turn to ease the guilt and pain.

But I ran from Him I know not why; young hearts can't understand
And sometimes pride can hold you back like a restraining hand.
But then the pain it got so bad, I thought my heart would break
I knew down deep inside of me that first step I should take.

And then His hand reached down for me, I felt it standing there
I sought His face and His alone down on my knees in prayer.
I didn't care who saw me then, my pride was gone you see;
All I could think about was CHRIST, that cross and Calvary.

I prayed to Him til I prayed through, He knew just what I felt;
And when I put my trust in Him, He saved me where I knelt.
He saved me, oh He saved my soul, was all my heart could say;
Though only 12 years old that night, I feel the same today.

Praise God He still can do for you, what He has done for me;
Through all the ages of the world, His love still sets men free.
