Pastor's Comments

Scripture of the Week: Romans 8:28

And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose.

Christians should take comfort from the knowledge that God is always working for our good. Even in trying times, yea even in tragedy, God is working for our good. However, let us not misunderstand this passage. Not all things happen because they are good for us nor because it was God's plan. It was not good for Joseph that he be sold into slavery and spend years in prison - and it certainly was not God's plan. However, what others meant for evil, God turned to good. When tragedy befalls us it is neither God's plan nor for our good - but we can rejoice knowing that God will bring good from it.

We were so thrilled to see Joe and Kathy Harrison back in church last Sunday. Please continue to remember them in your prayers.

BIBLE TRIVIA:

Last Week's Question: What dancer so enchanted Herod that he offered her anything she wished? Answer: The daughter of Herodias (Matthew 14:11)

This Week's Question: What was turned into a pillar of salt?

SYMPATHY:

Please remember the family of Sis Joyce Callis of Faith Church. Her nephew, Richard Buttrey, passed this week and his mother especially needs our prayers. He was in the hospital for nearly three months and had several surgeries to try and save his life.

IF YOU WERE UNABLE TO BE HERE LAST SUNDAY, PLEASE KNOW THAT YOU WERE MISSED.

~~~~~

*Prayer is just a simple thing
A talk with God above
To lift up those who stand in need
And thank Him for His love.*

WELCOME BACK

We were so happy to see Sis Darlene Etheridge back in church last Sunday. It had been a while since she was here and we were thrilled to have her back in service with us.

Make it a habit to talk with God about everything and let the light of His presence shine on your hopes and plans. He wants to be included in your life every day in every way.

For with thee is the fountain of life: in thy light shall we see light.

Psalm 36:9

*Happy Birthday to Ryan
Harrison on Tuesday, the 8th.
We miss you buddy.*

~~~~~

Pray when the storm clouds gather o'erhead,
Hiding the light from you,
Filling your soul with darkness and dread;
Pray till the light breaks through.

WHEN LIFE GETS YOU DOWN, KEEP LOOKING UP!
