Pastor's Comments

Scripture of the Week: Ezekiel 36:25-26

Then will I sprinkle clean water upon you, and ye shall be clean: from all your filthiness, and from all your idols, will I cleanse you. A new heart also will I give you, and a new spirit will I put within you: and I will take away the stony heart out of your flesh, and I will give you an heart of flesh.

Over 600 years before Jesus told Nicodemous that "Ye must be born again", God spoke through the prophet to give a perfect picture of the New Birth. The clean water that God sprinkles upon the soul of a broken sinner is the precious blood of Jesus. God removes the stony heart we are born with and gives us a new and tender heart - one that longs after righteousness. It is at that moment that we are saved and made new. How glorious the salvation of the Lord

BIBLE TRIVIA:

Last Week's Question: What king of Judah was Abi the wife of? Answer: Ahaz (2 Kings 18:2)

PRAYER REQUEST:

Please remember the family of Sis Joyce Robinson as she passed last Monday, February 14th.

Remember that we live in a fallen world, an abnormal world tainted by sin. Seeking perfection only results in frustration and failure. Instead seek the Lord's will for your life.

Delight thyself also in the LORD; And he shall give thee the desires of thine heart.

Psalm 37:4

For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ; that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad.

2 Corinthians 5:10

Sunday Morn

When you rise on Sunday morning and you can't make up your mind
Should I go to church this morning or just leave it all behind
Shirk my duty as a Christian and just have a playful day,
Then you kick the devil in the shins and send him on his way.

When you rise on Sunday morning and the sky is bright and blue
And the air is nice and balmy and the fish are calling you
And you're thinking, I'll go to the lake and have a restful day,
Then you kick the devil in the shins and send him on his way.

When you rise on Sunday morning and the weather it is dark
And your temper it's a flaring and you're meaner than a shark,
And you're thinking, "I'm not going, here at home I'm gonna stay,
Then you kick the devil in the shins and send him on his way.

When you rise on Sunday morning and can't find a thing to wear
And you're thinking, Now, aw what the heck, I really just don't care,
And look, you've popped a runner and you've sat on your new hat,
Now you kick the devil in the shins and boldly tell him "scat."

Now when you rise on Sunday morning and the devil's tempting you,
And he's telling you a million things that he wants you to do
Just remember what our Savior did, that day at Calvary
Then you kick the devil in the shins and win the victory.

Now the moral of this poem you'll see, it really doesn't matter
Because if it's a Sunday morn, the devil has to scatter
Cause God made Sundays just for man; it is the Master's day
So kick the devil in the shins and send him on his way.
