Opening Comments

We all know the historical account of Paul's persecution of the church from the book of Acts. We also know how he came to know the Lord on the road to Damascus. For those of us who have been saved, we can also see ourselves on the road to Damascus where the Lord opened our eyes, saved our soul and made us one of His. During our lifetime here on this earth, we are constantly traveling the Damascus Road, and will until such time as GOD call us home. What a wonderful blessing it is to be saved, to be a child of GOD and to know that we have a home eternal in the Heavens. Praise the Name of Jesus.

I'm on this road, Damascus Road
Where Jesus saved my soul
I'll follow him 'round every bend
O'er hill and dale I'll go.
I'll serve my Lord while living here
And when the call shall come
I'll travel on Damascus Road to my eternal home.

He Loves You!

It's amazing and incredible, but it's as true as it can be.
God loves and understands us all and that means you and me -
His grace is all sufficient for both the young and old,
For the lonely and the timid for the brash and for the bold -

His love knows no exceptions, so never feel excluded
No matter who or what you are your name has been included -
And no matter what your past has been trust God to understand,

And no matter what your problem is just place it in His hand -
For in all our unloveliness this great God loves us still,
He loved us since the world began and what's more, He always will.

As human beings we will always have ups and downs, but the Lord has promised that His presence limits how far down we can go.

"The LORD thy God in the midst of thee is mighty; he will save, he will rejoice over thee with joy; he will rest in his love, he will joy over thee with singing."

Zephaniah 3:17
