Pastor's Comments

Scripture of the Week: Philippians 2:14-15

Do all things without murmurings and disputings: That ye may be blameless and harmless, the sons of God, without rebuke, in the midst of a crooked and perverse nation, among whom ye shine as lights in the world

Are we happy Christians or grumbling Christians? Do we have a sunny disposition or a sullen disposition? Do we brighten a room when we walk in or does a cloud pass over? No doubt we live in the midst of a crooked and perverse nation that loves to complain, bemoan, and tear down. God has called us to be the opposite of that. We are to be true and righteous, desiring always to delight, praise, and build up. Let us strive to be blameless, harmless and without rebuke before this lost and dying world.

BIBLE TRIVIA:

Last Week's Question: What woman was given as a wife after her future husband brought in two hundred Philistine foreskins as a gift to her father? Answer: Michal (1 Samuel 18:27)

This Week's Question: Who offered a bottle of milk to an enemy soldier and then killed him?

The secret of being thankful is learning to see everything from God's perspective. The world is our classroom and His word is a lamp to our feet and a light for our path.

The heavens declare the glory of God; and the firmament sheweth his handywork.

Psalm 19:1

FYI:

I spoke with Bro Gayle Snoddy this past week and he informed me that they have canceled their annual March revival. Also, they have moved his surgery from the Veterans Hospital to Vanderbilt and it will be coming up soon. He asked that we remember him in prayer.

Today is National Oreo Cookie Day and National White Chocolate Cheesecake Day. This is your opportunity to splurge. Forget the calories and go for it.

If you would be interested in preparing the weekly bulletin for the church, please let Sis Stella know.

If I Could Capture Spring

If I could capture a sunny day
From the lovely month of May,
I'd chase the cobwebs from my room
An say goodbye to winter's gloom.
If I could color winter red,
A rose bouquet would be her bed.
I'll change the snow to emerald green
With yellow daffodils between.
If I could feel sweet springtime's kiss
Upon my cheek, it would be bliss.
But I must wait on winter's wing,
For only God can bring the spring.

From the rising of the sun unto the going down of the same the LORD's name is to be praised. Psalm 113:3
