Welcome to Mt Calvary

As children of God we should be very grateful that He loves us enough to discipline us. We may not like it at the time but we know that whatever comes into our lives our Father has sent it and it is always "for our profit that we might be partakers of His holiness." Just as the colors on ceramics are burned into the clay to prevent the colors from rubbing off, God also puts us in the fiery furnace at times. This is done for our perfection and to make us stronger and more permanent in His work. So remember when trials and tribulations come that He has something far more reaching in mind for you and take the time to thank Him for the trial.

BIBLE TRIVIA:

Last Week's Question: Who offered a bottle of milk to an enemy soldier and then killed him?
Answer: Jael (Judges 4)

This Week's Question: After Eve, who is the first woman mentioned in the Bible?

Limitations can be liberating, especially when your strongest desire is to live close to the Lord.

"Be silent, O all flesh, before the LORD: for he is raised up out of his holy habitation."

Zechariah 2:13

Please pray for our little Savanna Chandler. She has been sick for three weeks with a headache that will not go away.

Every member is encouraged to attend the business meeting today immediately following the morning worship service.

^^

Last Sunday we had 40 individuals in attendance for the worship service. What a wonderful blessing this was to all of us.

Do not go where it is all fine music, grand talk and beautiful architecture. Go where the gospel is preached. And go often.
