Pastors Comments

THIS WEEK'S SCRIPTURE: I John 2:1

My little children, these things write I unto you, that ye sin not. And if any man sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous:

It is God's desire that His children forsake sin. It should be our great desire, having been regenerated by His blood, to forsake sin. Yet this flesh will continue to thwart us. But fear not, oh child of God! Jesus is our advocate. Even now he is at the right hand of the Father pleading our case. It is His righteousness that has saved us from sin, and it is His righteousness that shall cover our sin day by day. Let us daily call upon Him, confess our sins, trust in His righteousness, and abide in His love.

BIBLE TRIVIA:

Last Week's Question: Who acknowledged the innocence of Jesus but allowed him to be crucified any way? Answer: Pontius Pilate (John 18-19)

This Week's Question: Who made numerous attempts to swindle Jacob, who ultimately prospered?

+++++

God has designed us to need Him moment by moment. As we become aware of our neediness, our realization increases and multiplies His abundance sufficiency.

A bruised reed shall he not break, and the smoking flax shall he not quench: he shall bring forth judgment unto truth.

Isaiah 42:3

There's a Reason

For every pain that we must bear,
For every burden, every care,
There's a reason.

For every grief that bows the head,
For every teardrop that is shed,
There is a reason.

For every hurt, for every plight,
For every lonely pain-racked night.
There is a reason.

But if we trust God as we should
It will all work out for our good.
He knows the reason.

And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose.

Romans 8:28
