THIS WEEK'S SCRIPTURE: Isaiah 66:13

As one whom his mother comforteth, so will I comfort you; and ye shall be comforted in Jerusalem.

The Lord is speaking here through the prophet of the great mercy he will bestow upon Israel with the coming of the Messiah. Israel was to suffer captivity, war, famine and servitude for hundreds of years. But God was promising future mercy. He compares the comfort He will give to Israel in that day to the comfort given by a mother. Is there any greater comfort we can experience in this life than in the arms of our mothers? Only the arms of God Almighty! God bless the love and comfort of mothers.

BIBLE TRIVIA:

Last Week's Question: Who ordered the killing of infant boys in Bethlehem? Answer: Herod (Matthew 2:16)

This Week's Question: What treacherous son led a revolt against his father, the King of Israel?

SIS WANDA HADDOCK WILL NOT BE HERE TODAY. SHE AND HER FAMILY ARE CELEBRATING MOTHER'S DAY TOGETHER.

^^^^^

Go to the Lord with a teachable spirit and eager to be changed. A close walk with Him is a life of continual newness.

When thou saidst, Seek ye my face; my heart said unto thee, Thy face, LORD, will I seek."

THANK YOU

Sis Stella would like to say "thank you" to those individuals who checked on her this past week.

Everlasting Lord

The sun is brightly shining, The rain has gone away The clouds have drifted off someplace To where we cannot say. No matter what the day brings No matter toil or strife No matter pain or suffering We go through in this life Our ord is ever with us He knows each tear we shed And tomorrow will be better If by His hand we're led. So look up to the Heavens Trust only in His Word For God is our Redeemer Our Everlasting Lord.
